

ADMISSION NOTICE for Class- I and Class-II for Session 2024-25

Dear Parents,

You are welcome to seek admission for your Sons in Don Bosco School, Siliguri. Admission to Don Bosco School Siliguri is obtained only when you have successfully completed certain admission formalities and procedures. Therefore, after the interview with the parents and after having scrutinized the application forms and the documents submitted thereafter, your wards will be shortlisted and subsequently fall into the final list.

Don Bosco School Siliguri is a Christian (Catholic) Minority Institution and as such the norms of minority institutions are applicable also in the admission procedure.

Only those parents who have faith in Don Bosco's system of education (wherein we give importance also to varied co-curricular activities) and are willing to abide by the rules and regulations of this School need to apply.

The criteria set by the Government of India in the New Education Policy demands that a child entering school at Class 1 level be 6 years old and class 2 be 7 years old. Don Bosco School, Siliguri shall abide by the new norms set by the Government of India with effect from 2023.

The selection of each student to the school is carried out by the Principal with the help of the selection committee consisting of the Secretary and the Vice-Principal of Don Bosco School Siliguri.

CAUTION

It is hereby declared that neither the Principal nor any member of the Management, faculty or support staff shall accept any gift or enticement of any sort in cash or in kind from anyone or from an intermediary for any favours from the school authorities. If such aberrations are unearthed even subsequently, kindly bring them to the notice of the Principal documented with evidence for his perusal and requisite action. In all matters of admission and promotion direct communication with the Principal is the only mode of contact. Beware of touts who may be involved in this process, for which the school is not to be held responsible. Recommendations for admissions are also not entertained.

With all good wishes for a successful outcome,

Truly,

Fr. Velloor Chacko Jose, SDB
Principal
